Black Walnut

Dedicated to creating unique, quality products, MARLEY NATURAL™ offers an elevated line of products made from sustainably grown black walnut and handblown glass, ensuring durability, convenient maintenance, and premium design. Balancing intuitive form with subtle Jamaican-inspired accents, this timeless collection was designed to upgrade your smoking ritual.

A. Bubbler

SKU: MARLEY-BUBBLER

A hybrid water and dry pipe, the Bubbler offers the best of both worlds. The generously apportioned base allows for a large volume of water to be filtered, while its globe-shaped percolator assures a premium filtration effect. Exceptionally crafted from borosilicate glass and sustainably-grown black walnut, the Bubbler's removable parts allow for easy cleaning and maintenance.

B. Spoon Pipe

SKU: MARLEY-SPOON

Created from handblown borosilicate glass and refined black walnut wood, the Spoon Pipe is a custom-designed piece that achieves a fluid balance of quality and durability. The rounded stem and heat-resistant glass bowl allow for consistent draws, creating an exceptionally smooth smoking experience. The detachable parts and compact form make the Spoon Pipe conducive to travel and an active lifestyle.

C. Steamroller

SKU: MARLEY-STEAM

Balancing a refined aesthetic with classic form, the Steamroller is the ideal day-to-day smoking companion piece. Combining handblown borosilicate glass with a rounded black walnut wood mouthpiece, this handheld pipe is designed to deliver an enhanced smoking experience. The Steamroller comes with a curved wood stand for convenient and proper display. Its distinctive straight pipe form allows for a more dramatic volume of smoke to collect, leading to an increased intake.

D. Taster

SKU: MARLEY-TASTER

The Taster is a quality-crafted piece that is ideal for daily smoking and compact enough to accompany you anywhere. Made from handblown borosilicate glass, the Taster is offset by a black walnut wood base and finished with natural carnauba wax. Elegant, efficient, and highly portable, the Taster is an essential companion piece for your versatile lifestyle.
